Pursuant to MCR 7.205(D)(2), in lieu of granting the delayed application for leave to appeal, this Court PEREMPTORILY REVERSES the decision of the trial court to bar the Michigan Department of Corrections from collecting restitution from defendant's prisoner account and VACATES the July 21, 2011 and September 6, 2011 orders of the trial court effectuating that decision. The Department of Corrections is required by statute to collect restitution from defendant's prisoner account until such time as defendant has rebutted the statutory presumption of nonindigency with evidence that enforcement of the restitution obligation would impose a manifest hardship on the prisoner or his immediate family.
